*Call to Worship

L: We give praise to the Lord; his love endures forever!

P: By God's grace, we receive this love even when we turn away.

L: Old and young, sinner and saint; we all are called to share in the Kingdom.

P: Open the doors of our church, that all may come in.

L: Open the doors of our hearts, that we may show love to all those whom we meet.

P: Come, let us become like children, worshiping in awe and wonder the God of all creation!

*Hymn "Come, Thou Almighty King" No. 61

*Prayer of Confession

Lord of the universe, too often we forget to become like children. We've lost our childlike wonder of you and your handiwork all around us. We turn quickly to anger and despair as the world around us appears to fall apart. Forgive us for our forgetting of you and your love. Instill in us your hope, your love, and your eyes that we may see the world as you see it. We rely on you for our strength and hope, especially when we feel hopeless. In Jesus' Name, we pray. Amen.

*Assurance of Forgiveness

*Gloria Patri No. 70

Disaster Relief

Oak Chapel United Methodist Women are sponsoring a trip to Eastbrook Mission Barn on Tuesday, October 31. You can help by donating items for cleaning buckets to be taken along. A list of items needed can be found in the narthex. If you are interested in participating in this mission trip please contact Pam Domer or Georgia Taylor for further details.

You can also help by supporting UMCOR's Advance #901670 at umcor.org/donate; or make a check to Oak Chapel UMC. 100% goes to the disaster area.
